

NEUROPATHOLOGIST

The Department of Pathology of the Cleveland Clinic is continuing to expand its faculty and is currently recruiting an enthusiastic neuropathologist to join our practice, which is organized as a complete subspecialty sign-out system. We are seeking a neuropathologist with strong diagnostic skills to actively participate on a busy clinical service and an individual who values working in a collegial environment at an institution with superb clinical material and collaborations with dedicated clinical colleagues. We seek candidates who strive to be excellent neuropathologists with a strong interest in resident and medical school teaching and a demonstrated record in clinical or translational research. Candidates who have skills in one other area of surgical pathology would be highly desirable.

A faculty appointment at a rank commensurate with experience is available at the Cleveland Clinic Lerner College of Medicine of Case Western Reserve University.

This dynamic position commands an extremely competitive salary enhanced by an attractive benefits package including medical malpractice coverage and a collegial work environment.

John R. Goldblum, M.D.
CHAIRMAN, DEPARTMENT OF PATHOLOGY
